AIAC has set out a comprehensive communication plan to reach local and international clienteles and ensure their maximum participation

CANADA'S LEADING NATIONAL AEROSPACE EVENT WELCOMES THE WORLD:

The Canadian Aerospace Summit is growing, extending its reach across the world. Successful players from an increasingly globalized aerospace industry will meet in Ottawa to share knowledge and discuss possible avenues of collaboration in meeting the challenges of future growth.

The 2019 Edition will bring together Canadian and international companies of all sizes, government, and academia for two days in Canada's capital discussing a variety of topics on a cutting-edge theme presently in development.

Over 1,200 participants, primarily C-suite executives, and government officials are expected to attend.

NOT ONE, BUT FOUR DISTINCT EVENTS

The 2019 Canadian Aerospace Summit offers four distinct events:

- A Conference Program featuring renowned Canadian and international speakers
- A one-day B2B & Trade Show matchmaking program connecting prime contractors with potential suppliers
- The Aerospace Leadership Luncheon
- The Annual Canadian Aerospace Reception and Dinner.

REACHING CANADA'S AEROSPACE INDUSTRY LEADERS

Sponsorship at the Summit constitutes an unparalleled opportunity for your organization to strengthen brand awareness and reach aerospace leaders (CEOs, procurement managers, government officials, etc.).
